

Best Pizza in Morris County? Here are some contenders

by Peter Genovese

Thursday July 23, 2009, 12:54 PM

The sausage pie at Nonna's in Florham Park is first-rate, and their old-fashioned zeppoles are irresistible!

(Photo by Pete Genovese).

Our third Pizza Patrol trip took us to Morris County, and we started out with a bang. Nonna's (176 Columbia Turnpike, Florham Park; 973-410-0030) was packed, but the Pizza Patrol is nothing if not flexible - we took our pies out to the parking lot!

Love the rolling-pin-wielding grandmas on the menu. Speaking of grandmas, we ordered a grandpa pizza, a thicker variation on the round-shaped grandma. Joan Dwyer found it "kind of bland," but Gina Bruno admired the "home cooked taste."

The plain/sausage was a hit. Al Windrem called the plain "better than average." I'm eating a sausage slice at every stop, and I think this is the best sausage we've had so far.

The plain/sausage pie at Nonna's in Florham Park sits in the back of the Big Dog, ready to be devoured.

(Photo by Pete Genovese).